BEFORE YOU BEGIN

How to use this book

This book and the interactive web app at learnfrench.zyeemzia.com are the same course. Write and practise in the book; use the web app to hear every word and sentence, take quizzes, review words with flashcards and play games.

1. Listen first

Open the same lesson in the web app and tap each word to hear it. Copy the sound, not the spelling.

2. Read aloud

Say every example and sentence out loud. Your mouth learns French sounds faster than your eyes do.

3. Use a pencil

Use a pencil for quizzes and writing so you can erase and retry. Answers are at the end of each unit.

4. Little but daily

15 minutes a day, 5 days a week: two or three lessons a week. Steady beats fast.

How French Sounds

Rhythm, stress and pure vowels

- Hear the smooth, even rhythm of French
- Put the stress at the end of a word group
- Read our easy respellings

Bienvenue! Welcome! Before learning words, let's tune your ears. French sounds smooth and flowing, like a gentle stream. Once you hear its rhythm, everything else gets easier.

Four golden rules

1. Even beats
   Give every syllable about the same time: ca-fé, cho-co-lat. No syllable is swallowed.

2. Lean on the end
   The last syllable of a word or a word group is a little longer. That's the French 'stress'.

3. Pure vowels
   Keep each vowel clean and steady. café ends on a crisp 'ay', not 'ay-ee'.

4. Busy lips
   French lips work hard: they smile for 'ee', round tightly for 'oo' and 'ew'.

Same word, different music

chocolat	chocolate
French: shoh-koh-LAH	English: CHOK-lit
Three even beats, the last one a little longer.	Strong first beat, the middle disappears.

Words you already know

hôtel	animal	important	restaurant
oh-TEL	ah-nee-MAHL	an-por-TAHN	res-toh-RAHN
hotel	animal	important	restaurant

Paris	téléphone
pah-REE	tay-lay-FON
Paris	telephone

In a sentence, French stresses only the end of each word group, not every word. Listen to how this flows as one long word:

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Bonjour, je m'appelle Léa.
bohn-ZHOOR, zhuh mah-pel lay-AH
Hello, my name is Léa. Two groups, two stresses: ZHOOR and AH.

Un café, s'il vous plaît.
uhn kah-FAY, seel voo PLEH
A coffee, please.

How to read our respellings

Respelling	Means	Example
CAPITALS	the stressed (slightly longer) syllable	merci = mehr-SEE
ew	French u: say 'ee' with round lips	tu = tew
uh	soft 'uh' with rounded lips	le = luh
zh	the s in 'measure'	jour = zhoor
ahn, ohn, an, uhn	nasal vowels: the n is NOT said	bon = bohn
r	French r, made in the throat	rouge = roozh

MEMORY TRICK

Imagine French as a wave that rises and lands at the end of each group: je voudrais un ca-FÉ. Ride the wave, land on the last beat!

DID YOU KNOW?

French is spoken on five continents, by more than 300 million people, from Paris to Montréal, Dakar and Tahiti.

Tap each word, listen, then say it with even beats and a longer last syllable.

The French Alphabet

26 familiar letters with French names

- Say the names of the 26 letters
- Avoid the classic E/I and G/J traps
- Spell a word aloud in French

Good news: French uses the same 26 letters as English. Only the names are different. Tap each letter to hear its French name.

The tricky ones

Letter	French name	Sounds like
E	e	uh
I	i	ee
G	gé	zhay
J	ji	zhee
H	ache	ahsh
R	erre	ehr
U	u	ew
W	double vé	doo-bluh VAY
Y	i grec	ee GREK

E and I swap

e

E = 'uh'

Soft, round lips. Not 'ee'!

i

I = 'ee'

Smiling lips. This is the English 'E' sound.

G and J swap

g

G = 'zhay'

Rhymes with 'day'.

j

J = 'zhee'

Rhymes with 'see'.

MEMORY TRICK

English speakers swap these pairs. Remember: Gay → 'zhay' (G rhymes with dAY), Jee → 'zhee'. And the French E is the shy 'uh', while I is the happy 'ee'.

Most letter names follow a pattern: vowel-like letters ending in 'ay' (bé, cé, dé, gé, pé, té, vé) and letters starting with 'e' (effe, elle, emme, enne, erre, esse).

Spelling aloud

People often ask Ça s'écrit comment ? (How is that spelled?). Then you spell letter by letter:

Léa : L, E accent aigu, A

el, uh ak-SAHN tay-GEW, ah

Léa: L, É, A

Paris : P, A, R, I, S

pay, ah, ehr, ee, es

Paris

duh el double L (as in 'elle')

TIP

For double letters, French says deux (two): deux L, deux S, deux M.

Spell these words aloud, letter by letter, using the French names.

Vowels & Accents

Small marks with big jobs

- Say the pure French vowels
- Tell é from è and ê
- Know what ç and the tréma do

French vowels are short, pure and steady. Accents are little helpers: some change the sound, some only change the meaning. Let's meet them.

Six key vowels

a	é	è	i
ah	ay	eh	ee
as in papa	as in été (summer)	as in mère (mother)	as in midi (noon)

o	u
oh	ew
as in vélo (bike)	as in tu (you)

The accents

É é — e accent aigu /ay/café coffee

È è — e accent grave /eh/mère mother

Ê ê — e accent circonflexe /eh/fête party

Ë ë — e tréma
/eh/Noël Christmas

À à — a accent grave /ah/voilà there it is

Â â — a accent circonflexe /ah/gâteau cake

Ç ç — c cédille
/s/garçon boy

Î î — i accent circonflexe /ee/île island

Ï ï — i tréma /ee/maïs corn

Ô ô — o accent circonflexe /oh/hôtel hotel

Û û — u accent circonflexe /ew/sûr sure

Ù ù — u accent grave /oo/où where

Œ œ — e dans l'o /uh/cœur heart

Mark	Name	What it does
é	accent aigu	only on e: says 'ay'
è à ù	accent grave	on e: says 'eh'; on a and u: changes the meaning only

Mark	Name	What it does
ê â î ô û	accent circonflexe	on e: says 'eh'; often marks a lost s
ë ï	tréma	say this vowel separately
ç	cédille	makes c say 's' before a, o, u

é vs è / ê

é	è	ê
'ay' (closed)	'eh' (open)	'eh' (open)
Smile, mouth almost closed: été, café.	Drop your jaw a little: mère, très.	Same as è: fête, forêt.

MEMORY TRICK

Draw it in the air! The aigu accent (´) climbs up: your voice is high and tight, 'ay'. The grave accent (`) slides down: your jaw drops, 'eh'. The circonflexe (^) is a little hat that hides a lost s: forêt = forest, hôpital = hospital.

Accents can change meaning

Some words sound the same but the accent tells them apart.

How to say it: a = has, à = to. ou = or, où = where. la = the, là = there. sur = on, sûr = sure.

a / à (ah) ou / où (oo) la / là (lah) sur / sûr (sewr)

The cédille

C before a, o, u is hard 'k'. Add a tail (ç) to make it a soft 's'.

ça (sah) garçon (gar-SOHN) reçu (ruh-SEW)

The tréma

Two dots say: pronounce me on my own.

How to say it: Compare mais ('meh', but) with maïs ('mah-EES', corn).

Noël (noh-EL) maïs (mah-EES)

Silent Final Letters

Many last letters stay quiet

- Know which final letters are usually silent
- Use the CaReFuL trick
- Hear the change in petit / petite

French spelling keeps letters that people stopped saying centuries ago. Relax: there are clear patterns, and you'll soon read them without thinking.

Final consonants are usually silent

Most consonants at the very end of a word are not said.

petit	grand	Paris	beaucoup	deux	nez
puh-TEE	grahn	pah-REE	boh-KOO	duh	nay

Final e is usually silent

An e at the end of a word is not said, but it makes the consonant before it heard.

petite	grande	rose
puh-TEET	grahnd	rohz

One letter, a new sound

petit

puh-TEE

Final t silent: small (masculine).

petite

puh-TEET

Final e silent, but now you hear the t: small (feminine).

CaReFuL letters are often said

Final C, R, F and L are usually pronounced.

How to say it: Big exception: verbs ending in -er (parler, manger) say 'ay', with a silent r.

avec	bonjour	neuf	avril
ah-VEK	bohn-ZHOOR	nuhf	ah-VREEL

MEMORY TRICK

Be CaReFuL! The consonants in C-a-R-e-F-u-L (c, r, f, l) are the ones French usually says at the end of a word.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Plural -s and verb -ent are silent

Plural s/x and the verb ending -ent make no sound.

How to say it: So il parle and ils parlent sound exactly the same.

les chats
lay SHAH

ils parlent eel PARL

des gâteaux day gah-TOH

WATCH OUT

One-syllable little words keep their e as a soft 'uh': le, de, je, me, que.

Spot the silent letters

le chocolat chaud luh shoh-koh-lah SHOH hot chocolate

un grand lit uhn grahn LEE a big bed

trois petits chats trwah puh-tee SHAH

Nasal Vowels

The famous French hum

- Make the four nasal vowels
- Spot when a vowel goes nasal
- Hear vent, vont and vin

Nasal vowels are the 'hum' that makes French sound French. The secret: let air flow through your nose and your mouth at the same time, and do NOT say the n.

Make a nasal vowel

1 Hold your nose
Say 'ah'. It sounds normal: that's an oral vowel.

2 Let go and hum
Now say 'ah' while letting some air out of your nose. Your tongue stays down.

3 Stop before the n
Never touch the roof of your mouth with your tongue. an = 'ahn' with no real n.

The four nasals

Sound	Spellings	Example
ahn	an, en, am, em	enfant (child)
ohn	on, om	bonbon (sweet)
an	in, im, ain, ein	pain (bread)
uhn	un, um	lundi (Monday)

an · en an, en, am, em

in · ain

un · um un, um /uhn/

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Three words, three nasals

vent	vont	vin
ahn: vahn	ohn: vohn	an: van
wind: mouth open wide.	(they) go: lips very round.	wine: lips spread, smile.

MEMORY TRICK

One sentence holds all the nasals: un bon vin blanc (a good white wine) = uhn bohn van BLAHN. Say it like a little song!

When is it NOT nasal?

If the n or m is followed by a vowel, or doubled, the vowel is normal and you DO say the n.

bon / bonne	un / une	fin / fine
bohn / bon	uhn / ewn	fan / feen

américain	américaine
ah-may-ree-KAN	ah-may-ree-KEN
Nasal ending: American (man).	n followed by e: no nasal (woman).

TIP

M before b or p works the same way: jambon (ham), temps (time), simple.

maman	jambon	le temps	important
mah-MAHN	zhahn-BOHN	luh TAHN	an-por-TAHN
mum	ham	time, weather	important un parfum

uhn par-FUHN

The French R, U and OU

Two sounds English doesn't have

- Make a soft throat r
- Say the French u
- Hear tu vs tout

Two sounds give English speakers the most fun: the French r and the French u. With a few tricks and a little practice, you'll have both.

The French r in 3 steps

1. Find the spot
   Say 'k' or 'g'. Feel the back of your tongue touch the back of your mouth.

2. Breathe there
   Leave a tiny gap at that same spot and breathe out a soft, buzzing 'h'.

3. Keep the tip down
   Your tongue tip rests behind your bottom teeth. No rolling, no curling.

MEMORY TRICK

Think of a light gargle, or a cat's soft purr. Too strong? Make it gentler. French people say it softly.

Sound Spellings

Letter teams that make one sound

- Read the most common letter teams
- Know soft and hard c and g
- Read new words with confidence

French often uses two or three letters for one sound. Learn these teams once, and you can read almost any French word aloud, even ones you've never seen.

The teams

ou — ou /oo/ — nous we oi — oi /wah/ — trois three eau · au — eau, au /oh/ — beau beautiful ai · ei — ai, ei /eh/ — lait milk eu · œu — eu, œu /uh/ — deux two

-er · -ez — -er, -ez /ay/ — parler to speak

gn — gn /ny/ — montagne mountain

ch — ch /sh/ — chat cat

qu — qu /k/ — qui who

-tion — -tion /syohn/ — nation nation ill — ill, -il /y/ — fille girl, daughter ui — ui /wee/ — nuit night

One sound, many spellings

Sound	Spellings	Examples
oh	o, au, eau	vélo, chaud, beau
eh	è, ê, ai, ei	mère, fête, lait, neige
ay	é, -er, -ez	été, parler, nez wah	oi	moi, trois
oo	ou	nous, soupe
uh	eu, œu	deux, sœur
sh	ch	chat, chien

Sound	Spellings	Examples
ny	gn	montagne
k	c, qu, k	café, qui, kilo
y	ill, y	fille, yaourt

MEMORY TRICK

E-A-U looks scary, but it's just 'oh'! Picture a bottle of water: eau = 'oh'. And a bateau (boat) floats on it: bah-TOH.

Don't read them the English way oi moi: me. Never 'oy'.

oo nous: we.

eu deux: two.

Soft c and g

Before e, i, y: c = 's' and g = 'zh'. Before a, o, u: c = 'k' and g = 'g'.

cinéma (see-nay-MAH) café (kah-FAY) girafe (zhee-RAHF) gare (gahr)

Keeping g soft

To keep g soft before a or o, French adds an e: ge.

How to say it: And to make g hard before e or i, add a u: guitare (ghee-TAR).

mangeons (mahn-ZHOHN) Georges (zhorzh)

-tion = 'syohn'

At the end of a word, -tion says 'syohn'.

Liaison & Elision

How French words link together

- Link words with liaison
- Drop a vowel with elision
- Know where linking is not allowed

French loves smooth sound. When one word ends and the next begins with a vowel, French links them, so speech flows without bumps. Two tools do this: liaison and elision.

Liaison

A silent final consonant wakes up when the next word starts with a vowel or a silent h.

How to say it: s and x link with a 'z' sound; d links with a 't' sound (un grand homme = uhn grahn-TOM).

les amis	vous avez	un ami	deux enfants
lay-zah-MEE	voo-zah-VAY	uhn-nah-MEE	duh-zahn-FAHN

Silent or awake?

les chats	les amis
lay SHAH	lay-zah-MEE
Consonant next: s stays silent.	Vowel next: s wakes up as 'z'.

MEMORY TRICK

Imagine the silent letter is asleep. A vowel next door knocks and wakes it up: 'les… ZAMIS!'

Elision

Small words drop their last vowel before a vowel or silent h, and an apostrophe takes its place.

How to say it: le, la, je, me, te, se, de, ne, que, ce → l', j', m', t', s', d', n', qu', c'.

l'ami	j'aime	c'est	d'accord	l'hôtel
lah-MEE	zhem	seh	dah-KOR	loh-TEL

le chat	l'ami
luh SHAH	lah-MEE
Consonant next: le stays whole.	Vowel next: le becomes l'.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

No linking here!

Never link after et (and), and never before an 'aspirated' h (marked * in dictionaries).

et un
ay UHN

les haricots lay ah-ree-KOH

le héros luh ay-ROH

WATCH OUT

Most h words are 'silent h' (l'homme, l'hôtel, les hommes = lay-ZOM). A few block linking: le héros, les haricots, la Hollande. Learn them as you meet them.

Smooth sentences

Ils ont un ami.
eel-zohn-tuhn-nah-MEE
They have a friend.

C'est un hôtel.
seh-tuhn-noh-TEL
It's a hotel.

J'habite à Lyon.
zhah-beet ah lee-OHN

Reading Lab

From syllables to real sentences

- Read syllables, words and phrases
- Use everything from this unit together
- Read a short dialogue aloud

Time to put it all together! Read each level aloud, tap to check, and only move on when it feels easy. Slow and smooth beats fast and bumpy.

Level 1: syllables

la lah	le luh	li lee	lo loh
lu lew	lou loo	loi lwah

Level 2: words

papa pah-PAH dad	ami ah-MEE friend	vélo vay-LOH bike	merci mehr-SEE thank you
maison meh-ZOHN house	bonjour bohn-ZHOOR hello

TIP

In maison, the s is between two vowels, so it says 'z': meh-ZOHN.

Level 3: little groups

un café uhn kah-FAY a coffee	le chat luh SHAH the cat	la maison lah meh-ZOHN the house	les amis lay-zah-MEE the friends
mon ami mohn-nah-MEE my friend	l'école lay-KOL the school

Level 4: phrases

Bonjour, madame !
bohn-ZHOOR, mah-DAHM
Hello, madam!

Merci beaucoup !
mehr-SEE boh-KOO
Thank you very much!

Je m'appelle Léa.
zhuh mah-pel lay-AH
My name is Léa.

C'est un bon vin blanc.
seh-tuhn bohn van BLAHN
It's a good white wine.

Les enfants sont à l'école.
lay-zahn-FAHN sohn-tah lay-KOL
The children are at school.

Level 5: a mini dialogue

Léa Bonjour ! Ça va ?
bohn-ZHOOR! sah VAH?
Hello! How are you?

Hugo Très bien, merci. Et toi ?
treh BYAN, mehr-SEE. ay TWAH?
Very well, thanks. And you?

Léa Ça va bien. Un café ?
sah vah BYAN. uhn kah-FAY?
I'm fine. A coffee?

Hugo Oui, avec plaisir !
wee, ah-vek pleh-ZEER!
Yes, with pleasure!

Read the whole dialogue aloud twice: once slowly, once at a natural speed.

Bonjour ! Ça va ?

Très bien, merci. Et toi ?

Ça va bien. Un café ?

Oui, avec plaisir !

Can you...?

Writing Letters & Accents

Clear letters, neat accents

- Write é, è, ê, ç, à and œ correctly
- Put each accent in the right direction
- Type accents on your phone and computer

You already know how to write the letters. In French, the magic is in the small marks. A missing or wrong accent can change a word, so let's write them with care. Grab a pen!

CULTURE NOTE

In France, children learn joined-up handwriting on paper with little squares and lines. Many people also write the number 1 with a long up-stroke and cross the 7 so it isn't confused with 1.

é

e accent aigu

1. Write a small e: start in the middle, go right, loop up and around, finish open at the bottom right.
2. Lift your pen.
3. Draw a short stroke above the e, rising from bottom left to top right (´).
4. Keep it small and just above the letter, not touching it.

★ Aigu climbs UP to the right, like your voice rising to 'ay'.

é é é é é é è

e accent grave

1. Write a small e.
2. Lift your pen.
3. Draw a short stroke above it, sloping down from top left to bottom right (`).

★ Grave goes down: think of a slide going down to the right.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

ê

e accent circonflexe

1. Write a small e.
2. Draw a small up-stroke to the right.
3. Without lifting, come down to the right: a tiny roof or hat (^).

★ A little hat sits on the letter, hiding a lost s: fête = feast.

ê ê ê ê ê ê

ç

c cédille

1. Write a small c.
2. Start just under the bottom of the c.
3. Add a small tail that curls down and to the left, like a tiny comma.

★ Only before a, o or u. Never write ç before e or i: c is already soft there.

ç ç ç ç ç ç à

a accent grave

1. Write a small a.
2. Lift your pen.
3. Add a short stroke sloping down to the right (`).

★ à with an accent = to / at. a without = has.

à à à à à à

Copyright © ZyeemZia

œ

e dans l'o

1. Start a small o, but don't close it on the right.
2. Let the right side of the o become the start of the e.
3. Finish the e loop. The two letters share one side.

★ Common words: cœur (heart), sœur (sister), œuf (egg).

œ œ œ œ œ œ

Say the name of each one as you write it.

Typing accents

Device	How to get é, è, ç…
Phone or tablet	Press and hold the letter (e, a, c, o…) and slide to the accent you need.
Mac	Option + e then e = é; Option + ` then e = è; Option + i then e = ê; Option + c = ç
Windows	Add the French or 'US International' keyboard in Settings, or use the touch keyboard and hold the letter.

Common Spelling Patterns

Hear a sound, choose the letters

- Pick common spellings for a sound
- Use s vs ss and plural endings
- Turn English words into French ones

French spelling looks tricky, but it follows patterns. Once you know them, you can often guess how to write a word you hear. Let's become spelling detectives!

Sound → spelling

You hear	Often written	Examples
oh	o, au, eau	vélo, auto, gâteau
eh	è, ê, ai, e + 2 consonants	père, tête, maison, belle ay	é, -er, -ez	été, manger, chez
s	s, ss, c, ç, -tion	sac, classe, ici, leçon, nation
k	c, qu, k	carte, quand, kiwi
ahn	an, en, am, em	blanc, vent, jambe, temps

s or ss?

Between two vowels, one s says 'z'. To keep the 's' sound, write ss.

rose (rohz) maison (meh-ZOHN) classe (klahs) poisson (pwah-SOHN)

Don't poison the fish!

poison
pwah-ZOHN
One s = 'z': poison.

poisson
pwah-SOHN
Double s = 's': fish.

désert day-ZEHR
One s: desert.

dessert
deh-SEHR
Double s: dessert (you want more of it, so two s!).

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Plurals

Usually add a silent -s. Words in -eau and -eu add -x. Many words in -al change to -aux.

How to say it: You often can't hear the plural, so look at the little word in front: le/la vs les, un vs des.

un chat → des chats
uhn SHAH → day SHAH

un gâteau → des gâteaux uhn gah-TOH → day gah-TOH

un jeu → des jeux
uhn ZHUH → day ZHUH

un animal → des animaux uhn-nah-nee-MAHL → day-zah-nee-MOH

Feminine -e

Many words add -e for the feminine. Sometimes you hear it, sometimes not.

grand → grande
grahn → grahnd

petit → petite puh-TEE → puh-TEET

ami → amie
ah-MEE → ah-MEE

MEMORY TRICK

Free vocabulary! Many English endings have French twins: -ty → -té (liberté, université), -ous → -eux (curieux, dangereux), -ly → -ment (rapidement), -tion stays -tion (information).

English → French

la liberté	curieux	rapidement	la société
lah lee-behr-TAY	kew-RYUH	rah-peed-MAHN	lah soh-syay-TAY
freedom, liberty	curious	quickly	society

Read, then cover and write each word. Check your s and ss!

Capitals & Punctuation

Small rules that look very French

- Know which words have no capital
- Use « guillemets » for quotes
- Put a space before ! ? : ;

French punctuation has a few surprises. Get them right and your writing instantly looks French. They are easy to learn: just a few small habits.

No capitals for days, months and languages

Inside a sentence, days, months, languages and nationality adjectives start with a small letter.

lundi	en janvier	Je parle anglais.	un livre français
luhn-DEE	ahn zhahn-VYAY	zhuh parl ahn-GLEH	uhn leevr frahn-SEH

Français or français?

un Français	un livre français	le français
Capital F	Small f	Small f
A French person (a noun for people).	A French book (describing word).	The French language.

MEMORY TRICK

Only PEOPLE get a capital: les Français, une Anglaise. Books, food and languages stay small: le fromage français, l'anglais.

A space before two-part marks

Put a space before ! ? : ; and none before . or ,

How to say it: A good trick: marks made of two pieces (! ? : ;) get a space. One-piece marks (. ,) don't.

Bonjour !	Ça va ?	Attention : danger !
bohn-ZHOOR	sah VAH	ah-tahn-SYOHN : dahn-ZHAY

Copyright © ZyeemZia

« Guillemets » for quotes

French uses « » for quotations, with a space inside each one.

How to say it: In dialogues, a new speaker is often shown with a dash: — Ça va ? — Oui, merci.

Il dit : « Bonjour ! »
eel DEE : bohn-ZHOOR

DID YOU KNOW?

Guillemets (ghee-yuh-MEH) are said to be named after a French printer called Guillaume. They look like little arrows hugging the words.

UNIT 2 · LESSON 4 · 10 MINUTES

Apostrophes & Elision

When little words lose a letter

- Know the words that drop their vowel
- Write l', j', d', c', n', qu' correctly
- Avoid common apostrophe mistakes

In Unit 1 you heard elision: le ami becomes l'ami. Now let's write it. The rule is simple and very regular: a small word drops its vowel before another vowel or a silent h.

The elision family

Word	Before a vowel	Example
le, la	l'	l'ami, l'école
je	j'	j'aime
me, te, se	m', t', s'	je m'appelle, il s'appelle
de	d'	un verre d'eau
ne	n'	je n'aime pas
que	qu'	qu'est-ce que...
ce	c'	c'est
si	s' (only before il/ils)	s'il vous plaît

MEMORY TRICK

Think of the apostrophe as a little bandage where a vowel fell off: je + aime → j'aime. The two words now hold hands.

Silent h counts as a vowel

Before a silent h, elide just like before a vowel.

l'homme (lom) l'hôtel (loh-TEL) j'habite (zhah-BEET)

No elision here

Before a consonant or an 'aspirated' h, keep the full word.

How to say it: si becomes s' only before il and ils: s'il, but si elle.

le chat (luh SHAH) le héros (luh ay-ROH) la Hollande (lah oh-LAHND) si elle (see EL)

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Spot the mistake

le ami	l'ami
Wrong	Right
Two vowels bump into each other.	Smooth: one apostrophe, no space after it.

WATCH OUT

No space after the apostrophe: l'école, never l' école. And only the little words in the table elide: une amie, never un' amie.

Words to remember

aujourd'hui	quelqu'un	Qu'est-ce que c'est ?
oh-zhoor-DWEE	kel-KUHN	kes-kuh SEH
today	someone	What is it?
A word with a built-in apostrophe.

Look at the model → write over the light copies → write on your own on the empty line.

l'ami l'ami l'ami

l'école l'école l'école

j'aime j'aime j'aime

d'accord d'accord d'accord

Dictation Practice

Listen, write, check

- Write what you hear, step by step
- Check accents and silent letters
- Tell a/à, et/est and ou/où apart

La dictée (dictation) is a French classic: someone reads, you write. It trains your ears and your spelling at the same time. Don't worry about mistakes: they show you exactly what to practise.

The 5-step method

1. Listen
   Hear the whole item once without writing.
2. Write
   Play it again and write what you hear.
3. Check sounds
   Did you use the right team for each sound (eau, ai, ou…)?
4. Check silent letters
   Plural s? Feminine e? Final t or d?
5. Check accents
   Every é, è, à, ç in place?

Level 1: words

A teacher or friend reads each item aloud, or press "Listen" in the web app. Write what you hear; answers are at the end of the unit.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Level 2: little groups

A teacher or friend reads each item aloud, or press "Listen" in the web app. Write what you hear; answers are at the end of the unit.

7. _____
8. _____

Copyright © ZyeemZia

9. _____

10. _____

Sound-alikes

Same sound, different word. Use a swap test to choose.

How to say it: If you can say avait instead, write a. If you can say était, write est. If you can say ou bien, write ou.

a / à	et / est	ou / où
ah	ay / eh	oo

MEMORY TRICK

The swap test: Il a un chat → Il avait un chat ✓ so it's a. Il va à Paris → Il va avait Paris ✗ so it's à.

Level 3: sentences

A teacher or friend reads each item aloud, or press "Listen" in the web app. Write what you hear; answers are at the end of the unit.

11. _____

12. _____

13. _____

14. _____

15. _____

WATCH OUT

In jouent, the -ent is silent, but you must write it. The sound tells you the word; grammar tells you the ending.

After each dictation

Check yourself

☐ I listen once before writing.

☐ I check plural s and feminine e.

☐ I check every accent.

☐ I use the swap test for a/à, et/est, ou/où.

Your First Sentences

Write about yourself in French

- Copy five useful sentence patterns
- Write three sentences about yourself
- Check spelling, accents and punctuation

This is a big moment: your first real French sentences! We'll copy useful patterns, then change one word to talk about you. Write slowly and neatly. Every sentence you write is a step forward.

Je m'appelle Léa.

Je	m'appelle	Léa
I	call myself	Léa

zhuh mah-pel lay-AH

My name is Léa.

Word for word: 'I call myself Léa'.

J'ai seize ans.

J'ai	seize	ans
I have	sixteen	years

zhay seh-ZAHN

I am sixteen.

French says 'I have 16 years'.

J'habite à Londres.

J'habite	à	Londres
I live	in	London

zhah-beet ah LOHNDR

I live in London.

Je parle anglais.

Je	parle	anglais
I	speak	English

zhuh parl ahn-GLEH

I speak English.

Hello, Goodbye & Please

Greet people and be polite, the French way

- Say hello and goodbye at any time of day
- Use please, thank you and sorry
- Choose between tu and vous

In France, you say hello before anything else: in shops, in lifts, on the bus. A simple Bonjour ! opens every door. Let's learn the words people use every day.

Hello & goodbye

French	Say it	Meaning
Bonjour	bohn-ZHOOR	Hello / Good morning (daytime) Bonjour, madame ! (bohn-ZHOOR, mah-DAHM) — Hello, madam!
Bonsoir	bohn-SWAHR	Good evening Bonsoir, monsieur. (bohn-SWAHR, muh-SYUH) — Good evening, sir.
Salut	sah-LEW	Hi / Bye (with friends) Salut, Léa ! (sah-LEW, lay-AH) — Hi, Léa!
Au revoir	oh ruh-VWAHR	Goodbye
À bientôt	ah byan-TOH	See you soon
À demain	ah duh-MAN	See you tomorrow
Bonne journée	bun zhoor-NAY	Have a good day
Bonne soirée	bun swah-RAY	Have a good evening
Bonne nuit	bun NWEE	Good night (at bedtime)

CULTURE NOTE

Say Bonjour until late afternoon, then switch to Bonsoir (from about 6 pm). Bonne nuit is only for going to bed: never use it to say hello.

Magic words

French	Say it	Meaning
S'il vous plaît	seel voo PLEH	Please (polite)
S'il te plaît	seel tuh PLEH	Please (to a friend)

Copyright © ZyeemZia

French	Say it	Meaning
Merci	mehr-SEE	Thank you
Merci beaucoup	mehr-SEE boh-KOO	Thank you very much
De rien	duh RYAN	You're welcome
Pardon	par-DOHN	Sorry / Excuse me (if you bump into someone)
Excusez-moi	ex-kew-zay-MWAH	Excuse me (to get attention)
Désolé / Désolée	day-zoh-LAY	I'm sorry (said by a man / a woman)
Oui	WEE	Yes
Non	NOHN	No

Tu or vous?

French has two words for you. tu is friendly: for family, friends, children and pets. vous is polite: for strangers, shop staff, older people and anyone at work. vous is also the plural you for a group.

tu

Friendly you

Family, friends, children, classmates. Relaxed and close.

vous

Polite or plural you

Strangers, shops, teachers, colleagues, or any group of people.

MEMORY TRICK

When in doubt, use vous. A French person will tell you when they want tu. You may hear On se tutoie ?, which means 'Shall we say tu?'

How are you?

Comment allez-vous ?
koh-mahn tah-lay-VOO
How are you? (polite)

Ça va ?
sah VAH
How's it going? (friendly)

Ça va bien, merci.
sah vah BYAN, mehr-SEE
I'm fine, thanks.

Très bien, et vous ?
treh BYAN, ay VOO
Very well, and you?

Pas mal.
pah MAHL
Not bad.

Bof...
BOF
Meh... so-so.
Very casual. A little shrug helps!

Bonjour, comment allez-vous ?

Bonjour	comment	allez-vous
hello	how	go you (are you)

bohn-ZHOOR, koh-mahn tah-lay-VOO

Hello, how are you?

French literally asks 'How do you go?'. The T of comment links to allez.

At the bakery

Client Bonjour, madame !
bohn-ZHOOR, mah-DAHM
Hello, madam!

Baker Bonjour, monsieur. Vous désirez ?
bohn-ZHOOR, muh-SYUH. voo day-zee-RAY Hello, sir. What would you like?

Client Une baguette, s'il vous plaît.
ewn bah-GET, seel voo PLEH
A baguette, please.

Baker Voilà. Un euro vingt, s'il vous plaît.
vwah-LAH. an nuh-roh VAN, seel voo PLEH
Here you are. One euro twenty, please.

Client Merci. Bonne journée !
mehr-SEE. bun zhoor-NAY Thanks. Have a good day!

Baker Merci, vous aussi ! Au revoir !
mehr-SEE, voo-zoh-SEE. oh ruh-VWAHR Thanks, you too! Goodbye!

CULTURE NOTE

Friends and family often greet each other with la bise: light kisses on the cheeks (usually two, but it depends on the region). With strangers and at work, a handshake is normal.

Read each line aloud. Smile: it really helps the sound!

Bonjour !

Bonsoir, madame.

Salut, ça va ?

Merci beaucoup !

De rien.

S'il vous plaît.

Au revoir, à bientôt !

Introducing Yourself

Your name, your country, your age

- Say your name and ask someone else's
- Say where you're from and your nationality
- Say how old you are

Let's talk about you! With a few short phrases you can give your name, your country and your age, and ask the same questions back.

Je m'appelle Sophie.

Je	m'appelle	Sophie
I	call myself	Sophie

zhuh mah-PEL soh-FEE

My name is Sophie.

Literally 'I call myself Sophie'. You can also say Je suis Sophie (I am Sophie).

UNIT 3 · LESSON 3 · 12 MINUTES

Numbers 0–20

Count, listen and use your first numbers

- Count from 0 to 20
- Recognise numbers when you hear them
- Use numbers in short phrases

Numbers are everywhere: prices, phone numbers, ages, bus lines. The good news: 0 to 16 are single words you simply learn, and 17 to 19 build themselves.

0 to 10

French	Say it	Meaning
zéro	zay-ROH	0 (zero)
un / une	AN / EWN	1 (one), masculine / feminine une pomme (ewn POM) — one apple deux	DUH	2 (two)
trois	TRWAH	3 (three) quatre	KAHTR	4 (four) cinq	SANK	5 (five)
six	SEESS	6 (six)
sept	SET	7 (seven) The P is silent
huit	WEET	8 (eight)
neuf	NUHF	9 (nine)
dix	DEESS	10 (ten)

WATCH OUT

The last sound of six, huit, dix changes before a noun: six alone is 'seess', but six livres is 'see LEEVR' and six amis is 'see-zah-MEE'. Don't worry: people understand you either way.

11 to 16

French	Say it	Meaning
onze	OHNZ	11 (eleven)

Copyright © ZyeemZia

French	Say it	Meaning
douze	DOOZ	12 (twelve)
treize	TREZ	13 (thirteen)
quatorze	kah-TORZ	14 (fourteen)
quinze	KANZ	15 (fifteen)
seize	SEZ	16 (sixteen)

17 to 20

French	Say it	Meaning
dix-sept	dee-SET	17 (ten-seven) dix-huit	dee-ZWEET	18 (ten-eight) dix-neuf	deez-NUHF	19 (ten-nine)
vingt	VAN	20 (twenty) The G and T are silent

MEMORY TRICK

17, 18 and 19 are simple maths: dix-sept = ten-seven, dix-huit = ten-eight, dix-neuf = ten-nine.

Don't mix them up deux

2: short 'uh'

No sound at the end. Round your lips and say 'duh'.

12: 'oo' + z

An 'oo' sound with a buzzing z at the end.

16: 'eh' + z

Rhymes with treize (13). Don't confuse it with six (6).

Numbers in action

J'ai deux frères.

zhay duh FREHR

I have two brothers.

Le bus numéro douze.

luh bewss new-may-roh DOOZ

The number 12 bus.

Elle a dix-sept ans.

el ah dee-seh-TAHN

She's seventeen.

Il y a onze joueurs.

eel-yah ohnz zhoo-UHR

There are eleven players.

DID YOU KNOW?

neuf means both nine and new! Before ans (years) and heures (hours), its F sounds like a V: neuf ans = 'nuh-VAHN'.

Numbers to 100 & Prices

Tens, the famous 70-80-90, and euros

- Count by tens up to 100
- Understand 70, 80 and 90
- Read and say prices in euros

From 20 to 69, French numbers are regular. Then come 70, 80 and 90, where French does a little maths. Once you see the trick, you can read any price.

The tens

French	Say it	Meaning
vingt	VAN	20
trente	TRAHNT	30
quarante	kah-RAHNT	40
cinquante	san-KAHNT	50
soixante	swah-SAHNT	60
soixante-dix	swah-sahnt-DEESS	70 (sixty-ten) quatre-vingts	kah-truh-VAN	80 (four twenties)
quatre-vingt-dix	kah-truh-van-DEESS	90 (four twenties + ten)
cent	SAHN	100

Building 21 to 69

Tens + hyphen + units. For 21, 31, 41, 51 and 61, say et un (and one) instead.

vingt et un (van-tay-AN) · vingt-deux (vant-DUH) · trente-cinq (trahnt-SANK) · quarante-huit (kah-rahn-TWEET) · soixante et un (swah-sahn-tay-AN)

70 to 99: French maths soixante-dix swah-sahnt-DEESS

70 = 60 + 10

soixante et onze
swah-sahn-tay-OHNZ
71 = 60 + 11

soixante-quinze
swah-sahnt-KANZ
75 = 60 + 15

quatre-vingts kah-truh-VAN 80 = 4 × 20

Copyright © ZyeemZia

quatre-vingt-un kah-truh-van-AN 81 = 4 × 20 + 1
No et here!

quatre-vingt-dix-sept
kah-truh-van-dee-SET 97 = 4 × 20 + 17

MEMORY TRICK
After 60, keep counting with 10 to 19: soixante-dix, soixante et onze, soixante-douze... After 80, do it again: quatre-vingt-dix, quatre-vingt-onze...

WATCH OUT
quatre-vingts (80) has an s, but it drops when another number follows: quatre-vingt-trois (83).

CULTURE NOTE
In Belgium and Switzerland people say septante (70) and nonante (90), and in parts of Switzerland huitante (80). Much easier! In France, use the forms above.

Money words

French	Say it	Meaning
un euro	an nuh-ROH	one euro
un centime	an sahn-TEEM	one cent
C'est combien ?	seh kohm-BYAN	How much is it?

Days, Months & Dates

Make plans and talk about birthdays

- Name the days of the week
- Name the twelve months
- Say today's date and your birthday

Making plans? You need days, months and dates. Good news: French dates are simpler than English ones.

Days of the week

French	Say it	Meaning
lundi	lun-DEE	Monday Moon (lune)
mardi	mar-DEE	Tuesday Mars
mercredi	mehr-kruh-DEE	Wednesday Mercury
jeudi	zhuh-DEE	Thursday Jupiter
vendredi	vahn-druh-DEE	Friday Venus
samedi	sahm-DEE	Saturday
dimanche	dee-MAHNSH	Sunday

MEMORY TRICK

Most days come from the planets: lundi Moon, mardi Mars, mercredi Mercury, jeudi Jupiter, vendredi Venus. All but dimanche end in -di, from Latin dies (day).

WATCH OUT

Days and months take no capital letter in French: lundi, janvier.

Months

French	Say it	Meaning
janvier	zhahn-VYAY	January
février	fay-vree-YAY	February
mars	MARSS	March
avril	ah-VREEL	April

Copyright © ZyeemZia

French	Say it	Meaning
mai	MEH	May
juin	ZHWAN	June
juillet	zhwee-YEH	July
août	OOT	August Often just 'oo'
septembre	sep-TAHMBR	September
octobre	ok-TOBR	October
novembre	noh-VAHMBR	November
décembre	day-SAHMBR	December

WATCH OUT

juin (June) and juillet (July) sound close. Listen to the end: 'zhwan' versus 'zhwee-YEH'.

Saying the date

le + number + month. Use ordinary numbers, except for the 1st: le premier.

How to say it: Today is... = On est le... or Nous sommes le...

Telling the Time

Hours, quarters, halves and the 24-hour clock

- Ask and say the time
- Use et quart, et demie and moins le quart
- Understand the 24-hour clock

Quelle heure est-il ? means 'What time is it?'. French uses heure (hour) for every time, and the 24-hour clock is very common for trains, shops and TV.

Il est trois heures.

Il	est	trois	heures
it	is	three	hours

eel eh trwah-ZUHR

It's three o'clock.

Always say heures, even when English says nothing: 'It is three hours'.

Asking the time

Quelle heure est-il ?
kel uh-reh-TEEL
What time is it?

Il est quelle heure ?
eel eh kel UHR
What time is it? (relaxed)

Vous avez l'heure ?
voo-zah-vay LUHR
Do you have the time?

On the hour

Il est une heure.
eel eh-tew-NUHR
It's one o'clock.
une, because heure is feminine.

Il est deux heures.
eel eh duh-ZUHR
It's two o'clock.

Il est midi.
eel eh mee-DEE
It's noon.

Il est minuit.
eel eh mee-NWEE
It's midnight.

Minutes, quarters and halves

Il est trois heures dix.
eel eh trwah-zuhr DEESS
3:10

Il est trois heures et quart.
eel eh trwah-zuhr ay KAR
3:15 (quarter past)

Il est trois heures et demie.
eel eh trwah-zuhr ay duh-MEE
3:30 (half past)

Il est quatre heures moins le quart.
eel eh kah-truhr mwan luh KAR
3:45 (quarter to four)

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Il est quatre heures moins dix.

eel eh kah-truhr mwan DEESS

3:50 (ten to four)

MEMORY TRICK

moins means minus: quatre heures moins dix = four o'clock minus ten = 3:50.

The 24-hour clock

Time	Everyday French	Official (trains, shops)
8:00 am	huit heures (du matin)	huit heures
2:00 pm	deux heures (de l'après-midi)	quatorze heures
6:30 pm	six heures et demie (du soir)	dix-huit heures trente
9:15 pm	neuf heures et quart (du soir)	vingt et une heures quinze

TIP

With the 24-hour clock, use plain minutes: trente (30) and quinze (15), not et demie or et quart.

Time words

French	Say it	Meaning

UNIT 3 · LESSON 7 · 12 MINUTES

Family

Talk about the people closest to you

- Name family members
- Say 'my' with mon, ma and mes
- Describe your family in a few sentences

Family is a favourite topic in any first conversation. Learn the words, then use mon, ma and mes (my) to talk about your own.

Close family

French	Say it	Meaning
la famille	lah fah-MEEY	the family le père	luh PEHR	the father
la mère	lah MEHR	the mother
les parents	lay pah-RAHN	the parents (also: relatives)
le frère	luh FREHR	the brother
la sœur	lah SUHR	the sister
le fils	luh FEESS	the son
la fille	lah FEEY	the daughter / the girl
l'enfant	lahn-FAHN	the child
le mari	luh mah-REE	the husband
la femme	lah FAHM	the wife / the woman

WATCH OUT

fils (son) sounds like 'feess': the L is silent and the S is pronounced. fille (daughter) sounds like 'feey': the double L sounds like 'y'.

The wider family

French	Say it	Meaning
le grand-père	luh grahn-PEHR	the grandfather
la grand-mère	lah grahn-MEHR	the grandmother

Copyright © ZyeemZia

French	Say it	Meaning

Food & Drinks

Order in a café and say what you like

- Name everyday foods and drinks
- Order politely in a café
- Say what you like and don't like

Food is at the heart of French life. Learn the basics and you're ready for a café, a bakery or a market.

Food

French	Say it	Meaning
le pain	luh PAN	bread
la baguette	lah bah-GET	baguette (long loaf)
le croissant	luh krwah-SAHN	croissant
le fromage	luh froh-MAHZH	cheese
le beurre	luh BUHR	butter
l'œuf	LUHF	egg des œufs (day-ZUH) — (some) eggs
la viande	lah VYAHND	meat
le poulet	luh poo-LEH	chicken
le poisson	luh pwah-SOHN	fish
les légumes	lay lay-GEWM	vegetables
les frites	lay FREET	chips / fries
le riz	luh REE	rice
les pâtes	lay PAHT	pasta
la pomme	lah POM	apple
la salade	lah sah-LAHD	salad / lettuce

WATCH OUT

poisson (fish) is 'pwah-SOHN' with a hissing S. poison (poison) is 'pwah-ZOHN' with a buzzing Z. One S or two makes a big difference!

Drinks

French	Say it	Meaning
l'eau	LOH	water
le café	luh kah-FAY	coffee
le thé	luh TAY	tea
le lait	luh LEH	milk
le jus d'orange	luh zhew doh-RAHNZH	orange juice
le vin	luh VAN	wine
la bière	lah BYEHR	beer
le chocolat chaud	luh shoh-koh-lah SHOH	hot chocolate

CULTURE NOTE

In a French café, un café is a small espresso. Want it with milk? Ask for un café crème (or just un crème).

I'd like...

To order politely, say Je voudrais... (I would like...). It's softer than Je veux (I want).

Je voudrais un café, s'il vous plaît.
zhuh voo-DREH an kah-FAY, seel voo PLEH

Je voudrais de l'eau.
zhuh voo-dreh duh LOH

Pour moi, un thé.
poor MWAH, an TAY

Likes and dislikes

J'aime le chocolat.
zhem luh shoh-koh-LAH
I like chocolate.

J'adore les frites !
zhah-dor lay FREET
I love fries!

Je n'aime pas le poisson.
zhuh nem pah luh pwah-SOHN
I don't like fish.

Je préfère le thé.
zhuh pray-fehr luh TAY
I prefer tea.

TIP

After aimer, adorer and préférer, use le / la / les: J'aime le fromage = I like cheese (in general).

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Je voudrais un croissant et un café, s'il vous plaît.

Je	voudrais	un	croissant	et	un	café	s'il	vous	plaît
I	would like	a	croissant	and	a	coffee	if it	you	pleases

zhuh voo-DREH an krwah-SAHN ay an kah-FAY, seel voo PLEH

I'd like a croissant and a coffee, please.

s'il vous plaît literally means 'if it pleases you'.

At the café

Waiter Bonjour ! Qu'est-ce que je vous sers ?
bohn-ZHOOR. kes-kuh zhuh voo SEHR Hello! What can I get you?

Emma Je voudrais un chocolat chaud, s'il vous plaît.
zhuh voo-DREH an shoh-koh-lah SHOH, seel voo PLEH
I'd like a hot chocolate, please.

Waiter Et pour monsieur ?
ay poor muh-SYUH
And for you, sir?

Léo Pour moi, un café et un croissant.
poor MWAH, an kah-FAY ay an krwah-SAHN
For me, a coffee and a croissant.

Waiter Très bien. Et avec ceci ?
treh BYAN. ay ah-vek suh-SEE Very good. Anything else?

Léo Une carafe d'eau, s'il vous plaît.
ewn kah-rahf DOH, seel voo PLEH
A jug of tap water, please.

Waiter Avec plaisir !
ah-vek pleh-ZEER
With pleasure!

CULTURE NOTE

Une carafe d'eau is free tap water in French restaurants and cafés. Just ask!

Order these aloud, as if you're in a café.

Je voudrais un thé, s'il vous plaît.

Pour moi, un jus d'orange.

J'adore le fromage !

Je n'aime pas le café.

L'addition, s'il vous plaît.

UNIT 3 · LESSON 9 · 13 MINUTES

Colours & Clothes

Describe what people wear

- Name the main colours
- Name everyday clothes
- Make colours agree with the noun

Shopping for clothes or describing what someone is wearing? You need colours. In French, colours usually come after the noun.

Colours

French	Say it	Meaning
rouge	ROOZH	red
bleu / bleue	BLUH	blue
vert / verte	VEHR / VEHRT	green
jaune	ZHOHN	yellow
noir / noire	NWAHR	black blanc / blanche	BLAHN / BLAHNSH	white gris / grise	GREE / GREEZ	grey rose	ROHZ	pink
violet / violette	vyoh-LEH / vyoh-LET	purple orange	oh-RAHNZH	orange marron	mah-ROHN	brown

Colours agree

Most colours add -e for feminine and -s for plural, like other adjectives. Colours already ending in -e (rouge, jaune, rose) don't change for feminine.

How to say it: orange and marron never change at all: des chaussures marron.

un pull vert an pewl VEHR

une robe verte ewn rob VEHRT

des chaussettes noires day shoh-set NWAHR

une chemise blanche ewn shuh-meez BLAHNSH

des chaussures marron day shoh-sewr mah-ROHN

MEMORY TRICK

Noun first, colour second: une voiture rouge = 'a car red'. Name the thing, then describe it.

Clothes

French	Say it	Meaning
le pantalon	luh pahn-tah-LOHN	trousers / pants un pantalon noir (an pahn-tah-lohn NWAHR) — (a pair of) black trousers
le jean	luh DJEEN	jeans
la chemise	lah shuh-MEEZ	shirt
le tee-shirt	luh tee-SHUHRT	T-shirt
le pull	luh PEWL	jumper / sweater
la robe	lah ROB	dress
la jupe	lah ZHEWP	skirt
la veste	lah VEST	jacket
le manteau	luh mahn-TOH	coat
les chaussures	lay shoh-SEWR	shoes
les chaussettes	lay shoh-SET	socks
le chapeau	luh shah-POH	hat

WATCH OUT

False friend! la veste is a jacket, not a vest. And un pantalon is one pair of trousers: it's singular in French.

What are you wearing?

Je porte un jean bleu.
zhuh port an djeen BLUH
I'm wearing blue jeans.

Elle porte une robe rouge.
el port ewn rob ROOZH
She's wearing a red dress.

Il a un manteau noir.

UNIT 4 · LESSON 1 · 13 MINUTES

Nouns & Gender

Masculine, feminine and plural nouns

- Know that every noun is masculine or feminine
- Spot typical masculine and feminine endings
- Make nouns plural

In French, every noun has a gender: masculine or feminine. Even tables and chairs! It isn't about meaning: it's simply part of the word. So learn each noun with its article.

Every noun has a gender le livre luh LEEVR the book (masculine) la table lah TAHBL

the table (feminine)

le soleil luh soh-LEY the sun (masculine) la lune lah LEWN

the moon (feminine)

le problème luh proh-BLEM
the problem (masculine!)

la voiture lah vwah-TEWR
the car (feminine)

MEMORY TRICK

Learn une table, not just table. The article is the word's gender label: le / un = masculine, la / une = feminine.

Endings that give a clue

Usually masculine	Example	Usually feminine	Example
-ment	le moment	-tion / -sion	la nation
-age	le fromage	-té	la liberté
-eau	le bateau	-ette	la baguette
-isme	le tourisme	-ure	la voiture
-er / -ier	le cahier	-ance / -ence	la chance

WATCH OUT

These are strong hints, not laws. la plage (beach), la page and l'eau (water) are feminine; le silence and l'été (summer) are masculine.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

People: gender follows the person

French	Say it	Meaning
un ami / une amie	an-nah-MEE / ew-nah-MEE	a friend (male / female)
un étudiant / une étudiante	an-nay-tew-DYAHN / ew-nay-tew-DYAHNT	a student (male / female)
un acteur / une actrice	an-nak-TUHR / ew-nak-TREESS	an actor / an actress
un chanteur / une chanteuse	an shahn-TUHR / ewn shahn-TUHZ	a singer (male / female)
un boulanger / une boulangère	an boo-lahn-ZHAY / ewn boo-lahn-ZHEHR	a baker (male / female)

Plurals: add -s

Most nouns add a silent -s. You hear the plural in the article: le / la becomes les, un / une becomes des.

How to say it: Words in -eau and most in -eu add -x. Most words in -al change to -aux.

un livre, des livres an LEEVR, day LEEVR

le gâteau, les gâteaux luh gah-TOH, lay gah-TOH

le jeu, les jeux
luh ZHUH, lay ZHUH

le cheval, les chevaux
luh shuh-VAL, lay shuh-VOH

TIP

The final -s and -x are silent: livre and livres sound the same. Listen to the article instead: le ('luh') versus les ('lay').

Les gâteaux sont sur la table.

Les	gâteaux	sont	sur	la	table
the (plural)	cakes	are	on	the (fem.)	table

lay gah-TOH sohn sewr lah TAHBL

The cakes are on the table.

UNIT 4 · LESSON 2 · 15 MINUTES

Articles: the, a, some le, la, les · un, une, des · du, de la

- Use le, la, l' and les (the)
- Use un, une and des (a, some)
- Use du, de la and de l' (some) with food and drink

English has 'the', 'a' and 'some'. French has a few more forms, because articles change with gender and number. Here's the whole set in three small tables.

The: le, la, l', les

	Masculine	Feminine	Plural
the	le livre	la table	les livres
the (before a vowel or silent h)	l'ami	l'eau	les amis

TIP

le and la shorten to l' before a vowel or a silent h: l'hôtel, l'école. This is called elision, and it makes French flow.

A / some: un, une, des

	Masculine	Feminine	Plural
a / some	un livre	une pomme	des amis meaning	a book	an apple	(some) friends

MEMORY TRICK

English often drops 'some', but French needs des: J'ai des amis = I have (some) friends. A French noun almost never stands alone.

Some: du, de la, de l', des

Masculine	Feminine	Before a vowel	Plural
du pain	de la confiture	de l'eau	des pâtes
some bread	some jam	some water	some pasta

Copyright © ZyeemZia

When to use du / de la

Use du, de la, de l' for an amount of something you don't count: food, drinks, money, time, courage.

Je mange du pain.
zhuh mahnzh dew PAN

Tu veux de la salade ?
tew vuh duh lah sah-LAHD

Il boit de l'eau.
eel bwah duh LOH

Elle a du courage.
el ah dew koo-RAHZH

J'aime le fromage.

In general: le, la, les

Use after aimer, adorer, détester, préférer: cheese as a whole.

Je mange du fromage.

An amount: du, de la

Use when you eat, drink, buy or have some of it.

After a negative: de

After ne... pas, the articles un, une, des, du, de la all become de (or d').

Je n'ai pas de chien.
zhuh neh pah duh SHYAN

Il ne boit pas d'eau.
eel nuh bwah pah DOH

Nous n'avons pas de pain.
noo nah-vohn pah duh PAN

WATCH OUT

One exception: with être the article stays. C'est un chat becomes Ce n'est pas un chat.

Je voudrais du pain et de la confiture.

Je	voudrais	du	pain	et	de	la	confiture
I	would like	some	bread	and	some (of)	the	jam

zhuh voo-dreh dew PAN ay duh lah kohn-fee-TEWR

I'd like some bread and some jam.

de la works as one unit: 'some' for a feminine noun.

Read aloud and notice each article.

le pain, la confiture, l'eau, les pâtes

un croissant, une pomme, des fraises

Je mange du fromage.

Tu bois de l'eau ?

Je n'ai pas de voiture.

est

UNIT 4 · LESSON 3 · 12 MINUTES

Être: to be

The most important verb in French

- Conjugate être in the present
- Describe people and say jobs with être
- Choose between c'est and il est / elle est être (to be) is the most important verb in French. It's irregular, so learn it like a little song: je suis, tu es, il est...

être (to be): present

Pronoun	être	Say it	Meaning
je	suis	zhuh SWEE	I am
tu	es	tew EH	you are (friendly)
il / elle / on	est	eel / el / ohn EH	he / she / one is nous	sommes	noo SOM	we are vous	êtes	voo-ZET	you are (polite / plural)
ils / elles	sont	eel / el SOHN	they are on literally means 'one', but in everyday French it usually means we: On est en retard ! = We're late!

TIP

WATCH OUT

ils = they (all male, or a mixed group). elles = they (all female). One man in a group of women? It's ils.

Je suis étudiant.
zhuh swee-zay-tew-DYAHN
I'm a student.
No 'a' before a job after être.

Tu es fatigué ?
tew eh fah-tee-GAY
Are you tired?

Elle est médecin.
el eh mayd-SAN She's a doctor.

Nous sommes en France.
noo som-zahn FRAHNS
We're in France.

Vous êtes très gentil.
voo-zet treh zhahn-TEE
You're very kind.

Ils sont à la maison.
eel sohn-tah lah meh-ZOHN
They're at home.

MEMORY TRICK

Jobs after être drop the article: Il est professeur = 'He is teacher'. Think of the job as a description, like 'He is tall'.

C'est or il est?

C'est...

It's / he's / she's + a noun

Use with an article or a name: C'est un ami. C'est ma sœur. C'est Paris.

Il est / Elle est...

+ an adjective or a bare job

Il est grand. Elle est avocate.

Nous sommes contents d'être ici.

Nous	sommes	contents	d'être	ici
we	are	happy	to be	here

noo som kohn-TAHN DETR ee-SEE

We're happy to be here.

UNIT 4 · LESSON 4 · 13 MINUTES

Avoir: to have

Having things, and saying how you feel

- Conjugate avoir in the present
- Use avoir for age, hunger, thirst and more
- Hear the difference between ils sont and ils ont avoir (to have) is the second key verb. French also uses it where English uses 'to be': for age, hunger, thirst, fear and more.

avoir (to have): present

Pronoun	avoir	Say it	Meaning
j'	ai	zhay	I have
tu	as	tew AH	you have il / elle / on	a	eel / el / ohn AH	he / she / one has nous	avons	noo-zah-VOHN	we have vous	avez	voo-zah-VAY	you have ils / elles	ont	eel-ZOHN / el-ZOHN	they have

Listen carefully

ils sont

they are: S sound

'eel SOHN', a hissing S.

ils ont

they have: Z sound

'eel ZOHN', the S of ils links with a buzzing Z.

J'ai deux sœurs.

zhay duh SUHR

I have two sisters.

-er

UNIT 4 · LESSON 5 · 15 MINUTES

Regular -er Verbs

One pattern, hundreds of verbs

- Recognise -er verbs
- Conjugate them in the present
- Know which endings are silent

Most French verbs end in -er, and almost all of them follow one pattern. Learn it once and you can use hundreds of verbs: parler (to speak), aimer (to like), habiter (to live)...

How to conjugate

1 Start with the infinitive parler par-LAY

to speak

2 Remove -er to find the stem

parl-

This part never changes.

3 Add the ending for the person

je parle

zhuh PARL

I speak

parler (to speak)

Pronoun	Ending	parler	Say it
je	-e	je parle	zhuh PARL
tu	-es	tu parles	tew PARL
il / elle / on	-e	il parle	eel PARL
nous	-ons	nous parlons	noo par-LOHN
vous	-ez	vous parlez	voo par-LAY
ils / elles	-ent	ils parlent	eel PARL

MEMORY TRICK

Four forms, one sound: je parle, tu parles, il parle, ils parlent all sound like 'parl'. Only nous (-ons) and vous (-ez) sound different.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

WATCH OUT

The -ent of ils parlent is silent. Never say 'parl-ENT'!

Useful -er verbs

French	Say it	Meaning
parler	par-LAY	to speak Tu parles anglais ? (tew parl ahn-GLEH) — Do you speak English?
aimer	eh-MAY	to like / to love
habiter	ah-bee-TAY	to live (somewhere)
travailler	trah-vah-YAY	to work
manger	mahn-ZHAY	to eat
regarder	ruh-gar-DAY	to watch / to look at Elle regarde un film. (el ruh-gard an FEELM) — She's watching a film.
écouter	ay-koo-TAY	to listen (to)
jouer	zhoo-AY	to play
chercher	shehr-SHAY	to look for acheter	ash-TAY	to buy
étudier	ay-tew-DYAY	to study
adorer	ah-doh-RAY	to love / to adore

Before a vowel: j'

je becomes j' before a vowel or a silent h.

j'aime (ZHEM) j'habite (zhah-BEET) j'écoute (zhay-KOOT)

WATCH OUT

Small spelling changes keep the sound right: nous mangeons keeps an E so the G stays soft, and j'achète gets an accent. The sound is your guide.

TIP

One French present = three English ones. Je parle means 'I speak', 'I'm speaking' and 'I do speak'.

UNIT 4 · LESSON 6 · 13 MINUTES

Saying No: ne… pas

Negative sentences, never, nothing, nobody

- Make sentences negative with ne… pas
- Use n' before a vowel
- Use jamais, plus, rien and personne

To make a sentence negative, French wraps the verb in two little words: ne before it and pas after it. Think of it as a sandwich, with the verb as the filling.

The ne… pas sandwich

ne + verb + pas.

How to say it: ne becomes n' before a vowel or a silent h.

Je ne parle pas allemand.
zhuh nuh parl pah-zahl-MAHN

Il n'aime pas le café.
eel nem pah luh kah-FAY

Nous ne sommes pas fatigués.
noo nuh som pah fah-tee-GAY

Tu n'habites pas ici ?
tew nah-beet pah-zee-SEE

Je ne mange pas de viande.

Je	ne	mange	pas	de	viande
I	(not)	eat	not	any	meat

zhuh nuh mahnzh pah duh VYAHND

I don't eat meat.

Remember: after pas, du, de la, des, un, une become de.

CULTURE NOTE

In relaxed speech, people often drop the ne: Je sais pas (Dunno). Understand it when you hear it, but write the full ne… pas.

Other negatives

French	Meaning	Example
ne… jamais	never	Je ne mange jamais de viande.
ne… plus	no longer, not any more	Il n'habite plus ici.
ne… rien	nothing, not anything	Je ne vois rien.
ne… personne	nobody, not anyone	Je ne connais personne.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

WATCH OUT

On its own, une personne means 'a person'. With ne, personne means nobody!

Two verbs together

With two verbs, the sandwich goes around the first (conjugated) one.

Je ne veux pas partir.
zhuh nuh vuh pah par-TEER

UNIT 4 · LESSON 7 · 15 MINUTES

Asking Questions

Three ways to ask, plus who, what, where...

- Ask yes/no questions in three ways
- Use the question words
- Ask natural everyday questions

French gives you three ways to ask a yes/no question, from relaxed to formal. Start with the easiest: you probably know it already!

Three ways to ask

1. Raise your voice (relaxed)

Tu parles anglais ?

tew parl ahn-GLEH?

Do you speak English?

Just say the sentence with a rising tone. Very common in speech.

2. Add est-ce que (neutral)

Est-ce que tu parles anglais ?

ess-kuh tew parl ahn-GLEH?

Do you speak English?

Put est-ce que at the front. It works everywhere.

3. Swap verb and subject (formal)

Parles-tu anglais ?

parl-tew ahn-GLEH?

Do you speak English?

Join them with a hyphen. Common in writing and polite speech.

TIP

est-ce que sounds like 'ESS-kuh'. It literally means 'is it that...?'. Before a vowel it becomes est-ce qu': Est-ce qu'il vient ?

Inversion with il / elle / on

If the verb ends in a vowel, add -t- between the verb and il, elle, on so it sounds smooth.

Parle-t-il français ?	A-t-elle un chien ?	Va-t-on au cinéma ?
parl-teel frahn-SEH	ah-tel an SHYAN	vah-tohn oh see-nay-MAH

Adjectives: Agreement & Placement

Match the noun, and find the right spot

- Make adjectives agree in gender and number
- Put most adjectives after the noun
- Know the BAGS adjectives that go before

French adjectives are like chameleons: they change to match their noun, masculine or feminine, singular or plural. And most of them come after the noun.

Agreement: petit (small)

	Singular	Plural
Masculine	petit	petits
Feminine	petite	petites

TIP

Adding -e often makes the last consonant heard: petit is 'puh-TEE', petite is 'puh-TEET'. The plural -s stays silent.

WATCH OUT

Adjectives that already end in -e don't change for feminine: un homme calme, une femme calme.

Special feminine forms

heureux, heureuse
uh-RUH, uh-RUHZ happy (-eux becomes -euse)

sportif, sportive spor-TEEF, spor-TEEV sporty (-f becomes -ve)

bon, bonne
BOHN, BUN
good (double the N)

gentil, gentille zhahn-TEE, zhahn-TEEY kind (double the L)

cher, chère
SHEHR, SHEHR
dear / expensive (add an accent)

blanc, blanche BLAHN, BLAHNSH
white (fully irregular)

Most adjectives go after the noun

Colours, nationalities, shapes and most descriptions follow the noun.

un film français an feelm frahn-SEH

une voiture rouge
ewn vwah-tewr ROOZH

des gens sympas day zhahn san-PAH

un grand appartement an grahn-tah-par-tuh-MAHN

MEMORY TRICK

BAGS = Beauty, Age, Good or bad, Size. If the adjective fits in a BAG, it goes before the noun!

Three special adjectives

Masculine	Masculine before a vowel	Feminine beau	bel: un bel homme	belle nouveau	nouvel: un nouvel ami	nouvelle
vieux	vieil: un vieil ami	vieille

J'ai une petite voiture rouge.

J'ai	une	petite	voiture	rouge
I have	a	small	car	red

zhay ewn puh-teet vwah-tewr ROOZH

I have a small red car.

petite (size) goes before the noun, rouge (colour) goes after.

Describing people

Il est grand et sportif.
eel eh grahn ay spor-TEEF
He's tall and sporty.

Elle est intelligente et drôle.
el eh-tan-teh-lee-ZHAHNT ay DROHL
She's clever and funny.

Mes amis sont sympas.
may-zah-mee sohn san-PAH
My friends are nice.

Ma grand-mère est petite mais très active.
mah grahn-mehr eh puh-TEET meh treh-zak-TEEV
My grandmother is small but very active.

UNIT 4 · LESSON 9 · 13 MINUTES

Possessives: my, your, his, her

Match the thing, not the owner

- Use all the possessive adjectives
- Choose the right form for gender and number
- Avoid the his/her trap

In French, 'my', 'your', 'his' and 'her' agree with the thing owned, not with the owner. This one idea makes everything click.

Possessive adjectives

Owner	Masculine noun	Feminine noun	Plural noun
my	mon	ma	mes
your (tu)	ton	ta	tes
his / her / its	son	sa	ses
our	notre	notre	nos
your (vous)	votre	votre	vos
their	leur	leur	leurs

His or her? Same word!

son, sa, ses agree with the noun, not the owner. So sa mère can mean his mother or her mother.

Paul aime sa mère.
pohl em sah MEHR

Julie aime son père.
zhew-lee em sohn PEHR

MEMORY TRICK

Look at the thing, not the person. voiture is feminine, so it's always sa voiture: his car or her car. The context tells you which.

mon, ton, son before a vowel

Before a feminine noun starting with a vowel or silent h, use mon, ton, son so the words flow.

mon amie
moh-nah-MEE ton école toh-nay-KOL son histoire

soh-nees-TWAHR

UNIT 4 · LESSON 10 · 14 MINUTES

Aller & the Near Future

Going places and talking about plans

- Conjugate aller
- Use au, à la, à l' and aux
- Talk about plans with aller + infinitive aller (to go) is irregular but super useful. Bonus: it also builds the easiest future tense in French, the futur proche (near future).

aller (to go): present

Pronoun	aller	Say it	Meaning
je	vais	zhuh VEH	I go / I'm going tu	vas	tew VAH	you go il / elle / on	va	eel / el / ohn VAH	he / she / one goes nous	allons	noo-zah-LOHN	we go vous	allez	voo-zah-LAY	you go
ils / elles	vont	eel / el VOHN	they go

Going to: à + the à +	becomes	Example

le	au	Je vais au parc.
la	à la	Je vais à la gare.
l'	à l'	Je vais à l'hôpital.
les	aux	Je vais aux magasins.

WATCH OUT

Never say à le or à les: they always merge into au and aux.

TIP

Going to someone's place? Use chez: Je vais chez Marie (to Marie's), chez le médecin (to the doctor's).

Copyright © ZyeemZia

The near future: aller + infinitive

Present of aller + a verb in the infinitive = 'going to do'. It's the everyday way to talk about plans.

Je vais manger.
zhuh veh mahn-ZHAY

Tu vas voir !
tew vah VWAHR

Nous allons voyager en Italie.
noo-zah-lohn vwah-yah-ZHAY ahn-nee-tah-LEE

Ils vont arriver demain.
eel vohn-tah-ree-VAY duh-MAN

MEMORY TRICK

Just like English: 'I'm going to eat' = Je vais manger. Just don't add a word for 'to'!

Negative: wrap aller

ne... pas goes around aller, not around the infinitive.

Je ne vais pas travailler demain.
zhuh nuh veh pah trah-vah-YAY duh-MAN

Il ne va pas pleuvoir.
eel nuh vah pah pluh-VWAHR

Future time words

French	Say it	Meaning
ce soir	suh SWAHR	tonight / this evening
demain	duh-MAN	tomorrow
après-demain	ah-preh-duh-MAN	the day after tomorrow
ce week-end	suh wee-KEND	this weekend
la semaine prochaine	lah suh-men proh-SHEN	next week
l'année prochaine	lah-nay proh-SHEN	next year
bientôt	byan-TOH	soon
plus tard	plew TAR	later

Ce soir, je vais regarder un film.

Ce	soir	je	vais	regarder	un	film

Key Irregular Verbs

faire, prendre, vouloir, pouvoir, venir

- Conjugate faire, prendre, vouloir, pouvoir and venir
- Use them in everyday phrases
- Spot the patterns they share

A handful of irregular verbs turn up in almost every conversation. Learn these five and you can do, take, want, be able to and come!

faire (to do / to make)

Pronoun	faire	Say it
je	fais	zhuh FEH
tu	fais	tew FEH
il / elle / on	fait	eel FEH
nous	faisons	noo fuh-ZOHN
vous	faites	voo FET
ils / elles	font	eel FOHN

Everyday faire

French	Say it	Meaning
faire les courses	fehr lay KOORS	to do the shopping
faire la cuisine	fehr lah kwee-ZEEN	to cook
faire du sport	fehr dew SPOR	to do sport
faire une promenade	fehr ewn prom-NAHD	to go for a walk
Il fait beau.	eel feh BOH	The weather's nice.
Il fait froid.	eel feh FRWAH	It's cold (weather).

WATCH OUT

faisons is said 'fuh-ZOHN', not 'fay-ZOHN'. And it's vous faites, never 'vous faisez'!

Copyright © ZyeemZia

prendre (to take)

Pronoun	prendre	Say it
je	prends	zhuh PRAHN
tu	prends	tew PRAHN
il / elle / on	prend	eel PRAHN
nous	prenons	noo pruh-NOHN
vous	prenez	voo pruh-NAY
ils / elles	prennent	eel PREN

TIP

Use prendre for food, drinks and transport: Je prends un café (I'll have a coffee), Je prends le bus. Its cousins follow the same pattern: apprendre (to learn), comprendre (to understand).

Twin verbs: vouloir & pouvoir

Pronoun	vouloir (to want)	pouvoir (can, to be able to) je	veux	peux
tu	veux	peux
il / elle / on	veut	peut nous	voulons	pouvons
vous	voulez	pouvez
ils / elles	veulent	peuvent

Tu veux un café ?
tew vuh an kah-FAY
Do you want a coffee?

Je peux entrer ?
zhuh puh ahn-TRAY
Can I come in?

Vous pouvez répéter, s'il vous plaît ?
voo poo-vay ray-pay-TAY, seel voo PLEH
Could you repeat that, please?

Ils veulent partir.
eel vuhl par-TEER
They want to leave.

CULTURE NOTE

Je veux can sound blunt. Soften it with je voudrais (I would like) or ask Tu pourrais...? (Could you...?).

venir (to come)

Pronoun	venir	Say it
je	viens	zhuh VYAN

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Pronoun	venir	Say it
tu	viens	tew VYAN
il / elle / on	vient	eel VYAN
nous	venons	noo vuh-NOHN
vous	venez	voo vuh-NAY
ils / elles	viennent	eel VYEN

MEMORY TRICK

Spot the 'boot' pattern in prendre, vouloir, pouvoir, venir: nous and vous keep the short stem from the infinitive (pren-, voul-, pouv-, ven-), while the other forms change.

TIP

venir de + infinitive = 'to have just done': Je viens de manger = I've just eaten.

Tu veux venir au cinéma avec nous ?

Tu	veux	venir	au	cinéma	avec	nous
you	want	to come	to the	cinema	with	us

tew vuh vuh-NEER oh see-nay-MAH ah-vek NOO

Do you want to come to the cinema with us?

Ana Qu'est-ce que tu fais ?
kess-kuh tew FEH
What are you doing?

Tom Je fais mes devoirs.
zhuh feh may duh-VWAHR
I'm doing my homework.

Ana On va au parc. Tu veux venir ?
ohn vah oh PARK. tew vuh vuh-NEER
We're going to the park. Do you want to come?

Tom Je ne peux pas, je dois finir.
zhuh nuh puh PAH, zhuh dwah fee-NEER
I can't, I have to finish.

Ana Dommage ! Tu viens demain, alors ?
doh-MAHZH. tew vyan duh-MAN, ah-LOR Shame! Will you come tomorrow, then?

Tom Oui, je prends le bus à dix heures.
WEE, zhuh prahn luh bewss ah dee-ZUHR
Yes, I'll take the bus at ten.

UNIT 4 · LESSON 12 · 15 MINUTES

Pronouns: I, me, him, it

Subject, object and stressed pronouns

- Know all the subject pronouns
- Use direct object pronouns: le, la, les
- Use stressed pronouns: moi, toi, lui…

Pronouns save you from repeating nouns. You already know the subject pronouns (je, tu, il…). Now meet the pronouns that replace objects, and find out where they hide in the sentence.

Three kinds of pronoun

Subject	Object	Stressed	English
je	me (m')	moi	I / me
tu	te (t')	toi	you
il	le (l')	lui	he / him / it elle	la (l')	elle	she / her / it nous	nous	nous	we / us
vous	vous	vous	you
ils	les	eux	they / them (m)
elles	les	elles	they / them (f)

Object pronouns go BEFORE the verb

Unlike English, the object pronoun comes before the verb. le and la become l' before a vowel.

Je le regarde.
zhuh luh ruh-GARD

Tu la connais ?
tew lah koh-NEH

Il les aime.
eel lay-ZEM

From noun to pronoun

Je le regarde.
zhuh luh ruh-GARD
I'm watching it.
le = le film, from Je regarde le film.

Tu la connais ?
tew lah koh-NEH
Do you know her?
la = Marie, from Tu connais Marie ?

Il les aime.
eel lay-ZEM
He likes them.
les = les chats, from Il aime les chats.

Elle m'appelle ce soir.
el mah-pel suh SWAHR
She's calling me tonight.

Je t'aime.
zhuh TEM
I love you.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

MEMORY TRICK

Think of a magnet: the object pronoun sticks to the front of the verb. Je t'aime is literally 'I you love'.

With ne... pas and with two verbs

Negative: ne + pronoun + verb + pas. With two verbs, the pronoun goes before the infinitive.

Je ne le vois pas.
zhuh nuh luh vwah PAH

Je vais le faire.
zhuh veh luh FEHR

Tu peux m'aider ?
tew puh meh-DAY

Stressed pronouns

Use moi, toi, lui, elle, nous, vous, eux, elles after a preposition, for emphasis, and on their own.

Moi, je suis prof.
MWAH, zhuh swee PROF

C'est pour toi.
seh poor TWAH

Il vient avec nous.
eel vyan ah-vek NOO

Et lui ?
ay LWEE

Chez eux.
sheh ZUH

TIP

Moi aussi = Me too. Moi non plus = Me neither. C'est moi ! = It's me!

Ce livre, je le lis ce soir.

Ce	livre	je	le	lis	ce	soir
this	book	I	it	read	this	evening

suh LEEVR, zhuh luh lee suh SWAHR

That book? I'm reading it tonight.

Party plans

Paul Tu connais Léa ?
tew koh-neh lay-AH
Do you know Léa?

Nora Oui, je la connais bien.
WEE, zhuh lah koh-neh BYAN
Yes, I know her well.

Paul Tu peux l'inviter à ma fête ?

Can you invite her to my party?

Nora D'accord. Et ses frères ?
dah-KOR. ay say FREHR
OK. And her brothers?

Paul Non, je ne les invite pas. Ils sont pénibles !
NOHN, zhuh nuh lay-zan-veet PAH. eel sohn pay-NEEBL
No, I'm not inviting them. They're annoying!

Nora D'accord, pas eux !

UNIT 4 · LESSON 13 · 16 MINUTES

The Past (1): Passé Composé with Avoir

Say what you did

- Form the passé composé with avoir
- Make past participles of regular verbs
- Use common irregular participles

To say what you did, French uses the passé composé (compound past). It has two parts: a helper verb, usually avoir, plus a past participle. You already know avoir!

avoir + past participle

Present of avoir + past participle = 'I did' or 'I have done'.

J'ai mangé. — zhay mahn-ZHAY

Tu as fini ? — tew ah fee-NEE

Nous avons vendu la voiture. — noo-zah-vohn vahn-DEW lah vwah-TEWR

Making the past participle

Infinitive ends in	Participle ends in	Example
-er	-é	parler → parlé
-ir	-i	finir → fini
-re	-u	vendre → vendu

manger in the passé composé

French	Say it	English
j'ai mangé	zhay mahn-ZHAY	I ate / I have eaten
tu as mangé	tew ah mahn-ZHAY	you ate il / elle a mangé	eel ah mahn-ZHAY	he / she ate nous avons mangé	noo-zah-vohn mahn-ZHAY	we ate vous avez mangé	voo-zah-vay mahn-ZHAY	you ate
ils / elles ont mangé	eel-zohn mahn-ZHAY	they ate

TIP

One French form = two English ones: J'ai mangé means 'I ate' and 'I have eaten'.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Irregular participles

French	Say it	Meaning
j'ai eu	zhay EW	I had (avoir)
j'ai été	zhay ay-TAY	I was / I have been (être)
j'ai fait	zhay FEH	I did / I made (faire)
j'ai pris	zhay PREE	I took (prendre)
j'ai vu	zhay VEW	I saw (voir)
j'ai bu	zhay BEW	I drank (boire)
j'ai lu	zhay LEW	I read (lire)
j'ai dit	zhay DEE	I said (dire)
j'ai écrit	zhay ay-KREE	I wrote (écrire)
j'ai voulu	zhay voo-LEW	I wanted (vouloir)
j'ai pu	zhay PEW	I was able to (pouvoir)
j'ai mis	zhay MEE	I put (mettre)

Negative: wrap avoir ne… pas goes around avoir only. The participle stays outside.

Je n'ai pas mangé.
zhuh neh pah mahn-ZHAY

Il n'a pas vu le film.
eel nah pah vew luh FEELM

Nous n'avons rien fait.
noo nah-vohn ryan FEH

MEMORY TRICK

Sandwich again: ne + ai + pas, then the participle sits outside the bread: Je n'ai pas fini.

Past time words

The Past (2): Passé Composé with Être

Movement verbs and agreement

- Know which verbs use être
- Make the participle agree with the subject
- Tell a short story in the past

About twenty verbs use être instead of avoir in the passé composé. Most are about movement or change: going, coming, arriving, leaving, being born, dying…

The être verbs

Verb	Meaning	Participle
aller	to go	allé
venir	to come	venu
arriver	to arrive	arrivé
partir	to leave	parti
entrer	to go in	entré
sortir	to go out	sorti
monter	to go up	monté
descendre	to go down	descendu
naître	to be born	né
mourir	to die	mort
rester	to stay	resté
tomber	to fall	tombé
rentrer	to come home	rentré
revenir	to come back	revenu
devenir	to become	devenu
retourner	to go back	retourné

MEMORY TRICK

Picture the House of Être: you arrive (arriver), go in (entrer), go up the stairs (monter), come down (descendre), go out (sortir) and leave (partir). People are born (naître) and die (mourir) in it too!

Agreement with être

With être, the participle agrees with the subject, like an adjective: add -e for feminine and -s for plural.

Il est allé.
eel eh-tah-LAY

Elle est allée.
el eh-tah-LAY

Ils sont allés.
eel sohn-tah-LAY

Elles sont allées.
el sohn-tah-LAY

TIP

Good news: allé, allée, allés, allées all sound the same. The agreement usually shows only in writing.

aller in the passé composé

French	Say it	English
je suis allé(e)	zhuh swee-zah-LAY	I went tu es allé(e)	tew eh-zah-LAY	you went il est allé / elle est allée	eel eh-tah-LAY	he / she went nous sommes allé(e)s	noo som-zah-LAY	we went vous êtes allé(e)(s)	voo-zet-zah-LAY	you went ils sont allés / elles sont allées	eel sohn-tah-LAY	they went Avoir or être?

J'ai mangé.

avoir: most verbs

No agreement with the subject: elle a mangé.

Je suis parti(e).

être: movement & change

Agrees with the subject: elle est partie.

Je suis né à Londres.
zhuh swee NAY ah LOHNDR
I was born in London.

Elle est arrivée hier.
el eh-tah-ree-VAY ee-YEHR
She arrived yesterday.

Nous sommes restés à la maison.
noo som res-TAY ah lah meh-ZOHN
We stayed at home.

Tu es tombé ?
tew eh tohm-BAY
Did you fall?

Ils ne sont pas venus.
eel nuh sohn pah vuh-NEW
They didn't come.

At the Café

Order a drink, ask for the bill and pay

- Order drinks and snacks politely
- Ask for the bill and pay by card
- Understand how French cafés work

Cafés are at the heart of French daily life. In this lesson you will order a drink and a snack, ask for the bill and pay, all in polite, natural French.

Café words

French	Say it	Meaning
un café	uhn ka-FAY	an espresso (small black coffee)
un café crème	uhn ka-FAY KREM	a coffee with frothy milk
un thé	uhn TAY	a tea
un chocolat chaud	uhn sho-ko-LA SHOH	a hot chocolate
un jus d'orange	uhn zhew do-RAHNZH	an orange juice
un croissant	uhn krwah-SAHN	a croissant
une carafe d'eau	ewn ka-RAF DOH	a jug of tap water

CULTURE NOTE

In France, un café is a small, strong espresso. For a bigger coffee with milk, ask for un café crème (in Paris often just un crème). Café au lait is mostly something people make at home.

CULTURE NOTE

Service is included in the price by law (service compris). Leaving a few coins is a kind extra, never an obligation. To call the waiter, say Excusez-moi ! or S'il vous plaît ! Never shout Garçon !: it sounds rude today.

TIP

In many cafés a drink costs a little less at the counter (au comptoir) than at a table or on the terrace.

Role-play: your turn

1 Greet the waiter

Bonjour !

bohn-ZHOOR !

Hello!

2 Order a drink

Je voudrais un thé, s'il vous plaît.

zhuh voo-DRAY uhn TAY, seel voo PLAY.

I'd like a tea, please.

3 Add a snack

Et un croissant, s'il vous plaît.

ay uhn krwah-SAHN, seel voo PLAY.

And a croissant, please.

4 Ask for the bill

L'addition, s'il vous plaît.

la-dee-SYOHN, seel voo PLAY.

The bill, please.

5 Pay and leave

Merci, bonne journée !

mair-SEE, bun zhoor-NAY !

Thanks, have a nice day!

In the evening, say Bonne soirée ! (Have a nice evening!) instead.

Read each line aloud. Then order your own favourite drink.

Bonjour ! Je voudrais un chocolat chaud, s'il vous plaît.

Et avec ça ?

Un croissant et une carafe d'eau, s'il vous plaît.

L'addition, s'il vous plaît.

Je peux payer par carte ?

Merci, bonne journée !

zhuh swee za-lair-ZHEEK oh ka-ka-WET.

I'm allergic to peanuts.

Swap in your own allergy: au lait (milk), au gluten (gluten), aux fruits de mer (seafood).

CULTURE NOTE

Waiters will not bring the bill until you ask. Taking your time is normal, and rushing guests would be rude. When you are ready, say L'addition, s'il vous plaît.

CULTURE NOTE

Tap water (une carafe d'eau) is free with a meal in French restaurants, and bread is usually free too.

TIP

Lunch is usually served from about 12:00 to 14:00 and dinner from about 19:30. Between meals many kitchens close, so look for a brasserie, which often serves food all day.

Role-play: your turn

1 Ask for a table

Bonsoir, une table pour deux, s'il vous plaît.

CULTURE NOTE

Always say Bonjour when you walk into a shop, and Merci, au revoir when you leave. In France, asking a question without a greeting can seem rude.

CULTURE NOTE

At many market stalls the seller chooses the fruit for you, so ask before you touch. Prices are written with a comma: 6,20 € means six euros twenty.

DID YOU KNOW?

France has official sales seasons (les soldes): one in winter, starting in January, and one in summer, starting in late June. The dates are set nationally.

Role-play: your turn

1 Greet the seller

Bonjour !

bohn-ZHOOR !

Hello!

2 Ask the price

C'est combien ?

say kohm-BYAN ?

How much is it?

Read aloud. Then change the fruit and the quantity.

Bonjour ! Un kilo de pommes, s'il vous plaît.

Elles sont combien, les fraises ?

C'est tout, merci.

Je regarde, merci.

Je peux l'essayer ?

Vous l'avez en plus petit ?

Making Plans with Friends

Invite, accept, say no kindly and fix a time

- Invite a friend using tu
- Accept or refuse politely
- Agree on a time and a meeting place

Time to make plans! With friends, French people use tu and a relaxed style. Learn to invite, accept, say no kindly and fix a time and place.

Plans words

French	Say it	Meaning
Tu es libre ?	tew eh LEEBR ?	Are you free?
Ça te dit ?	sa tuh DEE ?	Do you fancy it? / Interested?
ce soir	suh SWAR	tonight / this evening
ce week-end	suh wee-KEND	this weekend
aller au cinéma	a-lay oh see-nay-MA	to go to the cinema
boire un verre	bwar uhn VAIR	to have a drink (lit. drink a glass)
On se retrouve où ?	ohn suh ruh-troov OO ?	Where shall we meet?
Avec plaisir !	ah-vek pleh-ZEER !	I'd love to! (lit. with pleasure)
Ça marche !	sa MARSH !	Deal! / Sounds good!
Une autre fois ?	ewn ohtr FWAH ?	Another time?
À plus !	ah PLEWSS !	See you later! (casual)

Saturday night plans

Inès Salut Hugo ! Tu es libre samedi soir ?
sa-LEW ew-GOH ! tew eh leebr sam-dee SWAR ?
Hi Hugo! Are you free on Saturday evening?

Hugo Samedi ? Oui, pourquoi ?
sam-DEE ? WEE, poor-KWAH ?
Saturday? Yes, why?

Inès Ça te dit d'aller au cinéma ? Il y a un nouveau film.
sa tuh DEE da-LAY oh see-nay-MA ? eel ya uhn noo-voh FEELM.
Fancy going to the cinema? There's a new film.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Hugo Bonne idée ! Ça commence à quelle heure ?
bun ee-DAY ! sa ko-MAHNS ah kel UHR ?
Good idea! What time does it start?

Inès À vingt heures. On se retrouve au café d'en face à sept heures et demie ?
ah van TUHR. ohn suh ruh-TROOV oh ka-FAY dahn FASS ah seh tuhr ay duh-MEE ?
At 8 pm. Shall we meet at the café opposite at half past seven?

Hugo Ça marche ! Et après, on mange une pizza ?
sa MARSH ! ay ah-PREH, ohn mahnzh ewn peed-ZA ?
Deal! And afterwards, shall we have a pizza?

Inès Avec plaisir ! J'invite Léo aussi ?
ah-vek pleh-ZEER ! zhan-VEET lay-OH oh-SEE ?
I'd love to! Shall I invite Léo too?

Hugo Oui, bien sûr. À samedi !
WEE, byan SEWR. ah sam-DEE !
Yes, of course. See you on Saturday!

Inès À samedi ! Bisous !
ah sam-DEE ! bee-ZOO !
See you Saturday! Love, Inès! (lit. kisses)

Yes or no?

Say yes	Say no kindly
Avec plaisir ! I'd love to!	Désolé, je ne peux pas. Sorry, I can't.
Bonne idée ! Good idea!	Je suis pris ce soir. I'm busy tonight.
Ça marche ! Deal!	Une autre fois ? Another time?
Pourquoi pas ? Why not?	Ce week-end, ce n'est pas possible. This weekend isn't possible.

TIP

A woman says Je suis prise (busy), with a Z sound at the end, and writes Désolée (sorry), which sounds just like Désolé.

Ça te dit d'aller au cinéma ?

Ça	te	dit	d'aller	au	cinéma
that	to you	says	to go	to the	cinema

sa tuh DEE da-LAY oh see-nay-MA ?

Do you fancy going to the cinema?

Literally 'Does it say (something) to you to go…?' A very friendly way to invite.

Copyright © ZyeemZia

On se retrouve où ?

On	se	retrouve	où
we	each other	meet up	where

ohn suh ruh-troov OO ?

Where shall we meet?

In everyday speech, on usually means 'we'.

Désolé, je ne peux pas ce soir.

Désolé	je	ne	peux	pas	ce	soir
sorry	I	not	can	(not)	this	evening day-zo-LAY, zhuh nuh puh PA suh SWAR.

Sorry, I can't tonight.

CULTURE NOTE

With friends and people your own age, use tu. Text messages between friends often end with Bisous or Bises (kisses). It's friendly, not romantic.

DID YOU KNOW?

Texting shortcuts: A+ = À plus (see you), stp = s'il te plaît, bjr = bonjour, mdr = mort de rire (LOL).

Role-play: your turn

1. Ask if your friend is free

   Tu es libre ce soir ?

   tew eh leebr suh SWAR ?

   Are you free tonight?

2. Suggest something

   Ça te dit de boire un verre ?

3. Fix a time

   On se retrouve à dix-neuf heures ?

   ohn suh ruh-troov ah deez-nuh-VUHR ?

   Shall we meet at 7 pm?

Copyright © ZyeemZia

4 Fix a place

Devant la gare ?

duh-vahn la GAR ?

In front of the station?

5 Close the chat

Ça marche, à plus !

sa MARSH, ah PLEWSS !

Deal, see you later!

Read aloud. Then invite a friend to do something you enjoy.

Salut ! Tu es libre samedi ?

Ça te dit d'aller au cinéma ?

Avec plaisir ! On se retrouve où ?

Devant le café, à huit heures.

Désolé, je ne peux pas. Une autre fois ?

Ça marche, à plus !

Small Talk & the Weather

Chat about the weather and get to know people

- Describe the weather
- Ask where someone is from
- Keep a friendly chat going

Talking about the weather is the easiest way to start a chat with anyone. Add a few friendly questions and you can make small talk like a local.

Weather words

French	Say it	Meaning
Quel temps fait-il ?	kel tahn feh-TEEL ?	What's the weather like?
Il fait beau.	eel feh BOH.	The weather's nice.
Il fait mauvais.	eel feh mo-VEH.	The weather's bad.
Il fait chaud.	eel feh SHOH.	It's hot.
Il fait froid.	eel feh FRWAH.	It's cold.
Il pleut.	eel PLUH.	It's raining.
Il neige.	eel NEZH.	It's snowing.
Il y a du vent.	eel ya dew VAHN.	It's windy.
Il y a du soleil.	eel ya dew so-LAY.	It's sunny.
la météo	la may-tay-OH	the weather forecast

il fait / il y a du / weather verbs

Most weather phrases use il fait + an adjective. Some use il y a du + a noun. Rain and snow have their own verbs.

Il fait chaud. (eel feh SHOH.) Il y a du brouillard. (eel ya dew broo-YAR.) Il pleut. (eel PLUH.)

At the bus stop

Mme Roux Bonjour ! Quel beau temps aujourd'hui !
bohn-ZHOOR ! kel boh TAHN oh-zhoor-DWEE !
Hello! What lovely weather today!

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Sam Oui, enfin du soleil ! Hier, il a plu toute la journée.
WEE, ahn-FAN dew so-LAY ! YAIR, eel a PLEW toot la zhoor-NAY.
Yes, sunshine at last! Yesterday it rained all day.

Mme Roux Vous n'êtes pas d'ici, non ?
voo net pa dee-SEE, NOHN ?
You're not from here, are you?

Sam Non, je suis canadien. Je viens de Toronto.
NOHN, zhuh swee ka-na-DYAN. zhuh vyan duh to-rohn-TOH.
No, I'm Canadian. I'm from Toronto.

Mme Roux Oh, il fait très froid là-bas en hiver, non ?
OH, eel feh tray FRWAH la-BA ahn nee-VAIR, NOHN ?
Oh, it's very cold there in winter, isn't it?

Sam Oui, et il neige beaucoup !
WEE, ay eel nezh boh-KOO !
Yes, and it snows a lot!

Mme Roux Et vous êtes ici en vacances ?
ay voo zet ee-SEE ahn va-KAHNS ?
And are you here on holiday?

Sam Non, je travaille ici pour six mois.
NOHN, zhuh tra-VIGH ee-SEE poor see MWAH.
No, I'm working here for six months.

Mme Roux Super ! Alors, bon séjour en France !

Thanks, that's kind! Have a nice day!

Il fait beau aujourd'hui.

Il	fait	beau	aujourd'hui
it	makes / does	nice	today

eel feh BOH oh-zhoor-DWEE.

The weather's nice today.

French uses il fait (literally 'it makes') for most weather.

Quel temps fait-il chez vous ?

Quel	temps	fait-il	chez	vous
what	weather	does it make	at the home of	you kel tahn feh-teel shay VOO ?

What's the weather like where you live?

Copyright © ZyeemZia

Vous êtes d'où ?

Vous	êtes	d'où
you	are	from where

voo zet DOO ?

Where are you from?

With a friend: Tu es d'où ?

CULTURE NOTE

France uses degrees Celsius: Il fait vingt-cinq degrés means it's 25 °C, a warm day (about 77 °F).

CULTURE NOTE

Good small-talk topics: the weather, food, holidays, sport and where people are from. Salary, money and religion are usually seen as private, so avoid them with people you have just met.

TIP

Add non ? at the end of a sentence to mean 'isn't it?': Il fait froid, non ?

Role-play: your turn

1 Open with the weather

Il fait beau aujourd'hui, non ?

eel feh BOH oh-zhoor-DWEE, NOHN ?

Nice weather today, isn't it?

2 Ask where they're from

Vous êtes d'où ?

voo zet DOO ?

Where are you from?

3 Talk about yourself

Je viens d'Angleterre.

zhuh vyan dahn-gluh-TAIR.

I'm from England.

4 Ask about their visit

Vous êtes ici en vacances ?

voo zet ee-SEE ahn va-KAHNS ?

Are you here on holiday?

Copyright © ZyeemZia

5 Close politely

Bonne journée !

bun zhoor-NAY !

Have a nice day!

Read aloud. Then describe today's weather where you are.

Quel temps fait-il aujourd'hui ?

Il fait beau et il y a du soleil.

Hier, il a plu toute la journée.

Songs & Rhymes

Traditional French songs to sing along with

- Sing three traditional French songs
- Understand what the words mean
- Practise rhythm and rhyme

Songs are a great way to remember French sounds. These traditional songs are centuries old, and French children still sing them today. Read the meaning, then sing along!

Frère Jacques

Frère Jacques, frère Jacques,	Dormez-vous ? Dormez-vous ?	Sonnez les matines, sonnez les matines,	Ding, dang, dong. Ding, dang, dong.
frair ZHAHK, frair ZHAHK	dor-may-VOO ? dor-may-VOO ?	so-nay lay ma-TEEN, so-nay lay ma-TEEN	deeng, dahng, dohng
Brother Jacques, Brother Jacques,	Are you sleeping? Are you sleeping?	Ring the morning bells, ring the morning bells,	Ding, dang, dong.

CULTURE NOTE

Les matines are very early morning prayers in a monastery. Brother Jacques is a monk who has overslept and should be ringing the bell! The English version, 'Are you sleeping, Brother John?', tells the story a little differently.

Dormez-vous ? is a question made by swapping the verb and the subject: Vous dormez (you sleep) becomes Dormez-vous ? (do you sleep?).

Sonnez les matines !

Sonnez	les	matines
ring	the	morning prayers

so-nay lay ma-TEEN !

Ring the morning bells!

Au clair de la lune (first verse)

Au clair de la lune,	Mon ami Pierrot,	Prête-moi ta plume	Pour écrire un mot.

I have no more fire.

Ouvre-moi ta porte
oo-vruh-mwah ta PORT Open your door to me

Pour l'amour de Dieu.
poor la-moor duh DYUH
For the love of God.

CULTURE NOTE

Pierrot is a classic sad clown from old French theatre. In the 1700s people wrote with a feather quill (une plume) by candlelight.

Prête-moi ta plume.

Prête-moi	ta	plume
lend me	your	quill / pen

pret-mwah ta PLEWM.

Lend me your pen.

Prête-moi is a friendly command with tu. Today you might say Prête-moi ton stylo (lend me your pen).

Un, deux, trois, nous irons au bois

Un, deux, trois, nous irons au bois,
uhn, duh, TRWAH, noo zee-rohn oh BWAH
One, two, three, we'll go to the woods,

Quatre, cinq, six, cueillir des cerises,
katr, sank, SEESS, kuh-yeer day suh-REEZ
Four, five, six, to pick cherries,

Sept, huit, neuf, dans mon panier neuf,

Seven, eight, nine, in my new basket,

Dix, onze, douze, elles seront toutes rouges.
deess, ohnz, DOOZ, el suh-rohn toot ROOZH
Ten, eleven, twelve, they will all be red.

MEMORY TRICK

Listen for the rhymes: trois / bois, six / cerises, neuf / neuf, douze / rouges. Neuf means both 'nine' and 'new', and the song plays with that!

Sing or read the songs aloud. Tap any word to hear it.

Frère Jacques, frère Jacques, dormez-vous ?
Sonnez les matines, ding, dang, dong.
Au clair de la lune, mon ami Pierrot,
Prête-moi ta plume pour écrire un mot.

Culture: La Bise, Tu & Vous

Greetings, cheek kisses and polite forms

- Understand la bise and when to shake hands
- Choose between tu and vous
- Use everyday politeness words

Knowing a few social rules helps you feel at ease in France. Let's look at greetings, the famous bise, and when to say tu or vous.

La bise

La bise is a light touch of cheeks with a small kissing sound. Friends and family greet each other this way, and so do many colleagues who know each other well.

CULTURE NOTE

The number of kisses depends on the region. Two is the most common (for example in Paris), but some areas do one, three or even four! When in doubt, follow the other person's lead.

TIP

In business, or with people you don't know, a handshake (une poignée de main) is normal. Some people now prefer a simple wave or nod, and that's fine too.

Tu or vous?

Use tu with...	Use vous with... friends and family	people you don't know children	older people
people your age (especially young people)	shop staff, waiters, officials pets!	your boss or teacher (usually)

Vous is also simply the plural 'you'. Use it whenever you talk to more than one person, even friends.

Same question, two styles

Tu veux un café ?
tew vuh uhn ka-FAY ?
Do you want a coffee? (friendly)

Vous voulez un café ?
voo voo-LAY uhn ka-FAY ?
Would you like a coffee? (polite)

Comment tu t'appelles ?
ko-mahn tew ta-PEL ?
What's your name? (friendly)

Comment vous appelez-vous ?
ko-mahn voo za-play-VOO ?
What's your name? (polite)

Copyright © ZyeemZia

On peut se tutoyer ?

On	peut	se	tutoyer
we	can	each other	say tu to ohn puh suh tew-twah-YAY ?

Shall we say 'tu' to each other?

tutoyer = to say tu; vouvoyer = to say vous. Usually the older or more senior person suggests the switch.

Switching to tu

Mme Blanc Vous voulez encore du thé, Julien ?
voo voo-LAY ahn-kor dew TAY, zhew-LYAN ?
Would you like more tea, Julien?

Julien Oui, merci beaucoup, madame.
WEE, mair-SEE boh-KOO, ma-DAM.
Yes, thank you very much, madam.

Mme Blanc Appelez-moi Claire. Et on peut se tutoyer, non ?
a-play-MWAH KLAIR. ay ohn puh suh tew-twah-YAY, NOHN ?
Call me Claire. And we can say 'tu', can't we?

Julien Avec plaisir ! Alors… tu as un jardin magnifique, Claire.
ah-vek pleh-ZEER ! a-LOR… tew a uhn zhar-DAN ma-nyee-FEEK, KLAIR.
With pleasure! So… you have a wonderful garden, Claire.

Mme Blanc Merci ! Tu veux le voir ?
mair-SEE ! tew vuh luh VWAR ?
Thanks! Do you want to see it?

Julien Oui, je veux bien !
WEE, zhuh vuh BYAN !
Yes, I'd love to!

CULTURE NOTE

Politeness words matter a lot: Bonjour when you arrive, Merci, S'il vous plaît, and Au revoir when you leave, in shops, on the bus, even in a lift. Adding Monsieur or Madame makes it extra polite.

Read each pair aloud: first friendly, then polite.

Tu veux un café ?

Vous voulez un café ?

Comment tu t'appelles ?

Comment vous appelez-vous ?

Tu es d'où ?

Vous êtes d'où ?

Culture: Meals & the French-Speaking World

How the French eat, and where French is spoken

- Know French mealtimes and courses
- Learn table manners
- Discover French-speaking countries

Food and language bring people together. Discover how French meals work, then travel around the world of French speakers.

A day of French meals

Meal	When	What's typical
le petit-déjeuner	7:00–9:00	bread with butter and jam, coffee, tea or hot chocolate; croissants at the weekend
le déjeuner	12:00–14:00	often a hot meal; many schools and workplaces have a canteen
le goûter	about 16:30	an after-school snack for children: bread and chocolate, fruit or biscuits
le dîner	19:30–21:00	the evening meal, often with the family

CULTURE NOTE

A full meal can have several courses: entrée (starter), plat (main course), fromage (cheese) and dessert. Cheese comes before dessert!

CULTURE NOTE

At the table, bread is often placed straight on the tablecloth next to your plate. Keep your hands (wrists) on the table, not in your lap, and wait for Bon appétit ! before you start.

WATCH OUT

In Québec, Belgium and Switzerland, meal names are different: le déjeuner = breakfast, le dîner = lunch and le souper = dinner.

French around the world

About 320 million people speak French, on every continent. It is an official language in around 29 countries, and one of the two working languages of the United Nations Secretariat, with English.
